
Course: Self-Bucket Rescue

Location: Employee Development Center (EDC) – Red Deer

Delivery Method: Classroom/Lab

Course Length: 2 hours

Scope of Training: This course is intended to provide participants with instruction on self-bucket rescue procedures and a practical exercise to repel from an aerial device.

Target Audience: Journeyman Power Line Technicians and Apprentices.

Subject Matter:

The course will cover:

- OH&S regulations
- Safe work planning/job planning
- Roles and responsibilities
- Tools and equipment
- Pre-job checks and testing procedures

Learning Objectives:

At the completion of this session the participants will be able to:

- Interpret related regulations and standards
- Set up and test tools and equipment on a job site
- Safely rappel from an aerial device

Maximum Class Size: 12 students

Estimated Cost: $1700.00/session

Please contact us at edcexternaltraining@fortisalberta.com with questions regarding a firm quote as these costs are estimated and details about the course and delivery.